

Inspiration Hill

The ultimate hill country experience.

Contemporary hill country describes this unique home, tucked into the hillside with breathtaking views across the Pedernales River Valley to Fredericksburg, six miles away. A restful getaway where light, views, and artistic expression coexist. Every detail carefully considered – luscious bed linens, cool surfaces, restful colors – all chosen to bring the hill country indoors.

Walls and other surfaces – scored-concrete floors, tile, fireslate, river rock, granite – all bring notes of color and texture, echoing the landscape. Rock terracing and cedar-surround shower lure visitors outside.

A stunning mix – modern, international antiques and carvings, Indian velvets, and silks live comfortably in a simple and uncluttered space. The living room, with views of the valley, opens onto the screened porch with fireplace – a favorite spot to sip a cocktail and watch the sun slip away.
